THE MAYOR'S OFFICE TO COMBAT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

The Mayor's Office to Combat Domestic Violence (OCDV) formulates policies and programs, coordinates the citywide delivery of domestic violence services and works with diverse communities and community leaders to increase awareness of domestic violence. OCDV collaborates closely with government and nonprofit agencies that assist domestic violence survivors and operates the New York City Family Justice Centers. These co-located multidisciplinary domestic violence service centers provide vital social service, civil legal and criminal justice assistance for survivors of intimate partner violence and their children under one roof.

CENTER ON MEDIA CRIME AND JUSTICE at JOHN JAY COLLEGE

THE CENTER ON MEDIA, CRIME AND JUSTICE

The nonpartisan Center on Media, Crime and Justice at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice (City University of New York--CUNY) trains and educates reporters and editors across the country in emerging issues of criminal justice, and brings the media together with practitioners and advocates to nurture and develop journalism that can inform public debate and drive policy change. Over 800 journalists have participated in Center activities since 2007.
